2017 Sydney Campus International Student Bursary
Terms and conditions

1. Overview

The 2017 Sydney CBD Campus International Student Bursary (‘the Bursary’) is a full fee tuition waiver for up to the final three subjects. It is available to International Students studying a number of courses at the Sydney CBD Campus of Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong for the first time in 2017.

For students completing a 16 subject masters the Bursary can represent full tuition fee waivers for up to the final three subjects representing 18.75% of the expected course fees and the final two subjects representing 16.67% of the expected course fees for students completing a 12 subject masters.

There is no limit on the number of Bursaries to be granted for students commencing in 2017.

These terms and conditions apply only to students commencing in 2017.

2. Eligibility – Acceptance

Bursary eligibility is subject to accepting these terms and conditions.

(a.) Students who do not sign and return these terms and conditions are not eligible for the Bursary.

3. Eligibility – Courses

Bursary eligibility is determined by the students’ enrolled course.

(a.) Students enrolled in the following courses (16 subject masters) as at the Census Date of Trimester 1, Trimester 2 or Trimester 3, 2017 without any Credit for Prior Learning (Advanced Standing) are eligible for a Bursary with full tuition fee waivers for no more than the final three subjects:

   (i.) Master of Applied Finance - Investing and Corporate Treasury
   (ii.) Master of Business (Double Specialisation)
   (iii.) Master of Business Administration Advanced, or
   (iv.) Master of Science (Supply Chain Management & Project Management)

(b.) Students enrolled in the following courses (12 subject masters) as at the Census Date of Trimester 1, Trimester 2 or Trimester 3, 2017 without any Credit for Prior Learning (Advanced Standing) are eligible for a Bursary with full tuition fee waivers for no more than the final two subjects:

   (i.) Master of Applied Finance
   (ii.) Master of Business (Single Specialisation)
   (iii.) Master of Business Administration
   (iv.) Master of Science (Supply Chain Management), or
   (v.) Master of Science (Project Management)

(c.) Students enrolled in the Graduate Certificate in Business or the Graduate Certificate of Applied Finance as at the Census Date of Trimester 1, Trimester 2 or Trimester 3, 2017 without any Credit for Prior Learning (Advanced Standing) and with a packaged offer for one the following courses (4 subjects Graduate Certificate and 12 subject masters) are eligible for a Bursary with full tuition fee waivers for no more than the final three subjects of the Masters course:

(i.) Master of Applied Finance - Investing and Corporate Treasury
(ii.) Master of Business (Double Specialisation)
(iii.) Master of Business Administration Advanced, or
(iv.) Master of Science (Supply Chain Management & Project Management)

(d.) Students enrolled in the Graduate Certificate in Business or the Graduate Certificate of Applied Finance as at the Census Date of Trimester 1, Trimester 2 or Trimester 3, 2017 without any Credit for Prior Learning (Advanced Standing) and with a packaged offer for one the following courses (4 subjects Graduate Certificate and 8 subject masters) are eligible for a Bursary with full tuition fee waivers for no more than the final two subjects of the Masters course:

(i.) Master of Applied Finance
(ii.) Master of Business (Single Specialisation)
(iii.) Master of Business Administration
(iv.) Master of Science (Supply Chain Management), or
(v.) Master of Science (Project Management)

(e.) Students enrolled in the following courses or any other courses not listed above at (a.) or (b.) as at the Census Date of Trimester 1, Trimester 2 or Trimester 3, 2017 or who subsequently transferred to the following courses are not eligible for the Bursary:

(i.) Master of International Business
(ii.) Master of Professional Accounting, or
(iii.) Master of Professional Accounting Advanced.

(f.) Students deferring the start of their course until 2018 or a later year, are not eligible for the Bursary:

4. Eligibility – Credit for Prior Learning (Advanced Standing)

Bursary eligibility is impacted by being granted Credit for Prior Learning (Advanced Standing) before or after commencing a course. Bursary eligibility is subject to the students completing no less than twelve (12) subjects at the Sydney Business School.

(a.) Students who receive Credit for Prior Learning for postgraduate study at another institution or another UOW campus are not eligible for the Bursary.

(b.) Students who receive Credit for Prior Learning for five or more subjects for undergraduate study at another institution or another UOW campus are not eligible for the Bursary.

(c.) Students who receive Credit for Prior Learning for four or less subjects for undergraduate study at another institution or another UOW campus, and are enrolled in the following course are eligible for full tuition fee waivers for no more than the final two subjects.

(i.) Master of Applied Finance - Investing and Corporate Treasury
(ii.) Master of Business (Double Specialisation)
(iii.) Master of Business Administration Advanced, or
(iv.) Master of Science (Supply Chain Management & Project Management)

(d.) Students who receive Credit for Prior Learning for undergraduate study at another institution or another UOW campus, and are enrolled in the following courses are not eligible for the Bursary.

(i.) Master of Applied Finance
(ii.) Master of Business (Single Specialisation)
(iii.) Master of Business Administration
(iv.) Master of Science (Supply Chain Management), or
(v.) Master of Science (Project Management)
5. Eligibility – Campus

Bursary eligibility is dependent upon the student only enrolling in subjects taught at the Sydney CBD Campus.

(a.) Students undertaking any subjects offered at any other UOW campus are not eligible for the Bursary, except
   (i.) Students enrolled in Master of Business (Double Specialisation) remain eligible for their bursary where the second specialisation (e.g. HRM or Marketing) is only available at the Wollongong Campus. No more than five (5) subjects can be completed at the Wollongong campus and those subjects must be the five (5) core subjects of that second specialisation. No other subjects can be studied at campus other than Sydney CBD Campus.
   (ii.) Students enrolled in Master of Business Administration (Advanced) remain eligible for their bursary where the specialisation (e.g. HRM or Marketing) is only available at the Wollongong Campus. No more than four (4) subjects can be completed at the Wollongong campus and those subjects must be the four (4) core subjects of the specialisation. No other subjects can be studied at campus other than Sydney CBD Campus.

6. Eligibility – Previous Study at UOW

Bursary eligibility is dependent upon the student enrolling at the University of Wollongong for the first time in 2017.

(a.) Students enrolled in any University of Wollongong course prior to 2017 are not eligible for the Bursary.

7. Eligibility – Results and Progression

Bursary eligibility is dependent upon the student’s course progression and results.

(a.) Students who do not remain enrolled in their original degree are not eligible for the Bursary.
(b.) Students who do not proceed at the minimum rate of progress (full-time for an international student) are not eligible for the Bursary.
(c.) Students who undertook a Reduced Study Load for any part of their course are not eligible for the Bursary, except
   (i.) Students who are experiencing hardship and have been recommended by the Head of Students and accepted by the Chief Operating Officer as being exempt to this clause 7(c.).
   (d.) Students who take a Leave of Absence for any part of their course are not eligible for the Bursary, except
   (i.) Students who are experiencing hardship and have been recommended by the Head of Students and accepted by the Chief Operating Officer as being exempt to this clause 7(d.).
   (e.) Students who achieve a Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of less than sixty-five (65) are not eligible for the Bursary.
   (f.) Students who have already received a full tuition fee waiver for a subject that they subsequently fail will not receive a further full tuition fee waiver with respect to that subject or any other subject taken instead.

8. Payment

(a.) For any student eligible for a Bursary, the full tuition fee waiver(s) will be processed on or following the Census Date of the last trimester(s) of the student’s course of studies.
(b.) A student can only receive one UOW scholarship, sponsorship or bursary for the same course. If a student is eligible for any other UOW scholarship, sponsorship or other bursary UOW will determine in its absolute discretion which of the Bursary, UOW scholarship, sponsorship or other bursary that the student shall remain eligible.

9. Acknowledgement and Acceptance

Printed Name………………………………………………………Signature …………………………………

Date………………………………